Easter Sunday

This is the day the Lord has made! Christ is risen, and through him all creation is made new! Indeed, "God shows no partiality" (Acts 10:34): Christ's resurrection truly brings life to everyone. We sing hymns of praise, gather around sacred words, and proclaim God's faithfulness, power, and love in the feast of holy communion. With the women at the tomb, we are astonished, elated, and grateful. We depart with joy to proclaim the good news of God's endless love.

First Reading: Acts 10:34-43

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel: Matthew 28:1-10

Montana Synod LPA Program (Lay Pastoral Associate)

A Lay Pastoral Associate in the Montana Synod is a congregational lay person who has received religious, educational training, through the Montana Synod, in order to provide (in most cases) short term pulpit supply (ie, preaching) when the pastor is away, or if a congregation is without a pastor. Their role is to fill in for the basic pastoral duties such as providing Word and Sacrament, communion, and other roles as approved by the Bishop.

The LPA program is a 3 year journey of theological education with a cohort of other Lutherans from around Montana and Northern Wyoming in a retreat-type format. A new cohort is beginning in the coming months! If you have any interest in becoming an LPA or simply participating in the LPA training program, please let Pastor Jessie know in the coming weeks.

A Note From Pastor Jessie.

Greetings Bethel,

This week as we walk into Holy Week together, I have been uplifted as the sun shines just a little bit longer and the temperatures rise just a little bit higher. Often during this walk of Holy Week we talk about how we ought to be a little more penitent and a lot more morose. There is some truth to that, but this penitence and morose attitude isn't just for show or to punish ourselves for our sinful nature. This walk towards the Cross is one in which we bring our willingness to see the brokenness around us and in us, but not give up. It is a time in which we understand that Jesus saw the brokenness and the wrong turns of the community that surrounded him, and he continued with a commitment to forgive and redeem a world that didn't really deserve it. We give thanks for a God who gave a Son so that the broken could be made whole again. We mourn the fact that in our lives each of us has been a part of that brokenness in one way or another. We yearn for God to make us whole, and to teach us to live in a way that gives hope, life, and love to all whom we meet. During this Holy Week, as we enter into the darkness that is the crucifixion of our Lord, I pray that we might keep our eyes open, to see the world's brokenness around us, and to know that in the coming days God will continue to build in us that incredible resurrection hope...even in the midst of death. Dear friends in Christ, remember that as much as the Cross is a sign of penitence and of sadness and of torture, this week it will be transformed into a sign of strength, hope, and redemption for us all. I look forward to walking this journey alongside you all this week. Blessings on the journey.

-Pastor Jessie

EASTER BLESSINGS FROM THE MONTNANA SYNOD STAFF!

Lo, Jesus meets thee, risen from the tomb!
Lovingly he greets thee, scatters fear and gloom;
let his church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord now liveth, death hath lost its sting!

Thine is the glory, risen conquering Son, endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won!

Thine is the Glory, vs. 2 ELW 376

GOSPEL MESSAGE

April 9, 2023, RESURRECTION OF OUR LORD, EASTER DAY

The Stone-Moving Power of God

Special effort had been taken to seal up Jesus' tomb. Pilate and the religious authorities had taken great care to make absolutely certain there was no way Jesus' followers could move that stone themselves. They posted armed guards all around.

If they had had the technology back then, we could well imagine that floodlights, security cameras, and an alarm system would have been added to the tomb. But none of that would have mattered. For nothing in heaven or on earth could have stopped the stone-moving power of our God. An angel messenger comes in a brilliant flash to roll that stone away, and then he sits on it to share the good news that Jesus is alive. What had been intended by those who persecuted Jesus as a period—a full stop for the Jesus movement—becomes a pulpit for proclamation: "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 28:5). Christ is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

As we remember the story of Jesus' resurrection, we tune our hearts and minds to trust that this God who brings life out of death is still at work. What stones might God be moving today? Might we sense the Spirit at work in our lives here and now, rumbling the ground of our hearts and rolling away the messages of shame, fear, or rejection that have weighed us down? Might God be at work, rolling away stones of oppression and injustice in our world? Might we be sent, like these women, to not let fear rule our hearts, but to go, tell, and witness to a God who continues to open up a new future for us? Yes! The risen Christ appears to us today—present in word, and bread and wine, and water—ready to bless, nourish, call, and send. Nothing can stop this God. Jesus Christ is risen, indeed—Alleluia!

Jesus lives

John 20:1-18

Mary and the disciples couldn't believe their eyes! Jesus was not in the tomb. Mary's eyes were full of tears. She thought Jesus was taken away. But Jesus' voice told her something completely different. Now Mary could see Jesus with Easter eyes and hear his voice with Easter ears. Jesus was alive, standing next to her!

Did you know...

Seeds are buried in the ground so they can sprout into beautiful flowers. Follow the path and add what the seeds need.

Draw raindrops and a sun to make the seeds grow.

Jesus isn't here! Find the path where Mary will meet Jesus. Lead the disciples back to their home.

Draw a path to lead Mary and the disciples to the tomb.

Did you know...

A caterpillar looks lifeless in its chrysalis form, then it becomes a colorful butterfly.

Easter brings good news to tell everyone. Draw yourself sharing the Easter greeting with a family member, friend or neighbor.

This Week...

Use colored paper to make a butterfly as a symbol of Easter. Give it to a neighbor or friend.

Dear God, help us share the great news: Jesus Lives!

Amen
