Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

In today's reading from Deuteronomy we are called to choose life by loving and obeying God. Much of today's gospel reading echoes portions of the Ten Commandments. Jesus' instructions to the crowd reveal a pattern of behavior that honors both God and the neighbor, resulting in life and health for the whole community. We too are invited to embrace these commandments, not out of fear of retribution, but because God has promised that to do so means life for us.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:15-20

Psalm 119:1-8

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:1-9

Gospel: Matthew 5:21-37

The Season of Love

Greetings Bethel!

As we dive into the beginning of February it seems like around town in storefronts and in schools I see hearts and sentiments of love floating all around. Memories of making Valentine's boxes and eating delicious treats over the years come back to me, and I can't help but feel a bit warm and fuzzy about it all. I also understand the reality that Valentine's Day seems like a bit of an easy opportunity for consumerism and one more card to buy or chocolate to send. As we dive into this week though, I'm really thinking about the greatest love that we have the opportunity of receiving, which is God's love!

As Lutherans we put a huge emphasis on God's unconditional love and incredible grace for us. We recognize that God doesn't love us because of the things we do or what we deserve, but that this love that God shares is a pure gift. There will be days in this journey of faith and life that we don't feel like we deserve God's love, or that we feel we have fallen from God's favor. In response to these days we have a God who continues to insist that this love is enduring and all-encompassing more than we could ever imagine.

This week we will hear a message from the Gospel of Matthew about "the law and commandments" it will talk about the importance of that law and that we as God's people are commanded to keep and uphold that law. It will mention hell, sin, and evil. Quite the message for the "Season of Love" you might think! As we read these passages though, I believe that there is a message that God loves us enough to have high expectations. God loves us enough to communicate how we might live in a way that allows us not just to survive, but to thrive! God loves us enough to teach us how to create opportunities not just for us to thrive, but for our neighbors and our entire community to thrive as well. So maybe this law and these commandments are not what hold us back, but rather what shoot us forward into building the Kingdom of God amongst us. Maybe this love that God has for us isn't just a heart on a storefront or a delicious sugary treat, but the belief that each and every one of us was created for something more incredible than we could imagine. So this week don't forget how deeply loved you are by the God who created you. Don't forget to embody that love as you step out into the world each day. And finally, don't forget that there is nothing you or anyone else can do to lose this enduring love that God has promised.

-Pastor Jessie

Grief Workshop Begins February 19th

Join our guest speaker Rev. Sara MacGilvra Branom, Chaplin at Peace Hospice in Great Falls, as she leads us in discussion about how we, as people of faith, talk about and manage grief.

This will be a three-part education series, you may come to one or all three. February 19th, 26th and March 5th in the Fellowship Hall following worship.

Reverend Sara MacGilvra Branom is an ordained minister of the United Church of Christ. (UCC) Her call is to chaplaincy, she currently serves as the chaplain for Benefis Peace Hospice. She earned her B.A. in Psychology from San Jose State University, a Master's in Human Services from the University of Great Falls, and her M.Div. from Chicago Theological Seminary with a concentration in chaplaincy. Chaplain Sara's basis for her ministry is a response to Jesus' words when the disciples failed to be with him in his greatest time of need the night before his crucifixion. "So could you not watch with me for one hour?" Matt 26:40. Chaplaincy is being with someone in their time of need. To sit with them, share that space invoking the presence of God for comfort, and understanding and perhaps find meaning in their lament, and despair by providing spiritual and/or emotional support to all who request it, regardless of their faith, beliefs, or traditions. loving them on their terms as the holy Creation they are.

NEIGHBORWORKS GREAT FALLS AND FAMILY PROMISE PARTNER TO PROVIDE A HOME TO A FAMILY IN NEED.

NeighborWorks Great Falls (NWGF) and Family Promise of Great Falls (FPGF) have partnered together to provide a family of five facing eviction a place to call home. NWGF provided the renovated home, while Family Promise worked with a family who was struggling to find a place to live after their previous rental home was sold. NWGF has helped remove or renovate over 500 blighted properties in the community. This home needed extensive foundation repair which required NeighborWorks to do a complete renovation. Once completed, the small 3-bedroom 2-bath home was ideal to create an affordable rental opportunity. Now known affectionately as the “Promise House,” the collaboration with Family Promise will create an opportunity for a family struggling to rent a home they can afford. NWGF sees creating more opportunities for single-family residences as a step in the right direction when it comes to addressing some of the housing struggles in Great Falls. NWGF is looking for additional property to be able to create a similar opportunity for another local family.

“We were incredibly excited when NeighborWorks approached us with this opportunity,” said Greg Grosenick, Executive Director for Family Promise Great Falls. “It had been a rough summer trying to find housing for our families, but in this case the timing worked out perfectly. This family was literally days away from facing homelessness. We look forward to continuing our partnership with NeighborWorks and finding affordable housing options for the struggling families of our community.”

Board Secretary Beckie Frisbee

GOSPEL MESSAGE

February 12, 2023

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

A New Community

Anyone who has ever lived or worked with other humans likely knows that community is messy. We hurt each other, sometimes intentionally but often by accident. We say things we regret. We stay silent when we should speak up, or we impose our own beliefs on others when we should start by listening instead. We act rashly out of fear or ignorance or exhaustion. We trample over one another in an attempt to achieve, to win, to earn, or to protect what we assume is rightfully ours.

Jesus knows this side of humanity, and today he invites us to imagine another way. Today's gospel sounds harsh to our ears, but it might actually be an invitation into a community that looks more like the kingdom of God: a community of radical inclusivity, compassion, and care for one another. In this type of community, no one can be simply thrown aside or left behind. Honesty and integrity are the foundation of communication. People are seen in their full, beloved humanity, not as objects to be consumed or cast aside for the sake of others.

In our world today, we might wonder if such a community is possible, but in worship, we get to practice living in a community of faith together every week. Through the reading of scripture, we are reminded of the larger story of God in which we find our meaning: a living story of love, grace, and mercy. We confess our sins before one another and receive forgiveness and a fresh start. We are given our identity as God's beloved through baptism, and we are fed with Christ's own body and united with one another in holy communion. It is Christ at work in us who makes true healing and reconciliation possible, both in our congregations and throughout the world.

'A View From The Pew'

February's topic – My favorite hymn and why by Kathy Johnson

After spending more than 50 years on either a piano bench or organ bench at church, it's difficult to pick one favorite hymn. Having said that, I would still choose the classic song "When Peace Like a River" or sometimes called "It Is Well With My Soul". It is beautiful sung by a choir or as a vocal or piano solo.

The words are especially meaningful to me as they inspire hope and courage during good times and especially during bad times. The story of the composer Horatio Spafford is a very touching one and worth looking into if you are interested.

Just for YOUTH

Dear Lord, please help us to grow strong in our faith in You. Amen.

Growing strong in faith

1 Corinthians 3:1-9

Paul was one of the first Christian teachers. One way Paul taught people about Jesus' love was by writing letters to the early Christian congregations. Many of Paul's letters are found in the New Testament. The second scripture reading for today comes from Paul's letter to the Corinthians.

To complete Paul's letter write an "s" inside each ☆ and a "g" inside each 🌸.

FUN FACT:
 Paul's letters were written on paper made from papyrus or reeds. Baby Moses' basket was probably woven from papyrus.

Psalm 119

Pick up a Bible. Can you find 1 Corinthians? This is one of Paul's letters. Now close the Bible. Place your fingers right in the middle of the pages and open it again. You are probably turned to the book of Psalms. Psalms are songs. Every Sunday in worship, we sing or say a psalm. The psalm for this Sunday is part of Psalm 119.

Add or subtract letters to find a verse from Psalm 119.
