8th Sunday after Pentecost

It is an age-old question: why is there evil in the world? In the parable of the wheat and the weeds Jesus suggests that both grow together until the harvest. With Paul, we long for the day that all creation will be set free from bondage and suffering. Having both weeds and wheat within us, we humbly place our hope in the promises of God, and from the Lord's table we go forth to bear the fruit of justice and mercy.

First Reading: Isaiah 44:6-8

Psalm 86:11-17

Second Reading: Romans 8:12-25

Gospel: Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO?

A portion of the operating budget of Bethel (and every other ELCA church) goes to fund the work and mission of its Synod. Last year 7.5% of Bethel's budget was up streamed to the Montana Synod. Why is this money sent to the Synod? What does this money do? What is this money for?

The Montana Synod is made up of more than 120 churches spread out over 390,000 square miles across Montana and northern Wyoming. The Synod includes 173 pastors, 12 Deacons, 134 Lay Pastoral Associates, and 30,700 baptized members. The Synod works to connect, equip, and serve these people and their communities.

As people of faith, we know we are part of a body and community. A body works best when all its members are connected. A key role of the Synod staff, Council, and volunteers is Connecting the churches and pastors and members with one another and toward a common mission. We can do more together than we can apart. We are church together in supporting one another in bringing God's love to Montana, northern Wyoming, and the world. The Synod acts as a bridge between the pastors and churches, as well as a bridge to the ELCA churchwide (the administrative body encompassing 65 Synods and 10,000 ELCA churches in the US) and the larger world through our relationships with companion Synods in Bolivia and the Cape Orange Diocese in Africa. Last year, 37% of the Synod's budget was up streamed to the work and mission of the ELCA churchwide.

The stated vision of the Montana Synod is "Equipping for the Ministry of the Gospel". More than one-third of the Synod's budget focuses on providing tools, skills, "equipment" for pastors, LPA's, and others to carry out the work of God's church. This equipment includes leadership training, the LPA program, coaching, educational opportunities, and technological support, as well as the Northern Rockies Institute of Theology (NRIT).

The money we send to the Montana Synod is also used in Serving our communities, our state, and the world. The Synod provides funds to help with campus ministries at MSU and UM, Freedom in Christ Prison Ministry, the Rocky Boy ministry, PLTS and Luther Seminaries, Disaster Relief, and others. The work and ministries of the Montana Synod allow us to be God's people in so many more places and ways than we could ever be on our own.

So, where does the money go? It goes to connect, equip, and serve. As the current Montana Synod treasurer, I would like to thank all of you at Bethel for your continuing generosity in support of the Synod. Because of you people are being equipped for ministry across this state, the church is connected across this country, and lives are changed across this world.

Gratefully,

Dave Scholten

GOSPEL MESSAGE

A Righteous Harvest

One of the lessons of history is that when humans try to do the weeding, things end badly. Whenever we try to divide the world into good guys and bad guys, people get hurt. Everyone winds up being a bad guy to somebody, and you can do anything to the bad guys. You can lie about them. You can hurt them. You can hurt other people on your way to getting the bad guys, and that's regrettable. But it's okay to sacrifice some of the good guys in order to get the bad guys, right?

But the kingdom of heaven is not like the farmer who pulled up half of the wheat seedlings while going after the weeds. The kingdom of heaven is more like Jesus, who was so unwilling to cause harm to others that he died instead. Instead of pulling up the weeds and casting them into the fire, Jesus went into the fire himself.

Therefore, the harvest is fruitful beyond imagining, because the harvest is Jesus himself! Jesus bears the fruit of righteousness, reconciliation, and peace. He will gather all people into his care, and they will not be troubled by sickness, or violence, or hatred, or death. This will happen, not because Jesus will destroy all enemies, but because Jesus, by his death, will transform enemies into friends.

The weeds and the wheat are still growing in this world. Although Jesus has already done all that is needed for the final harvest, all of us growing here on this earth still need the help of our neighbors. Just as the farmer in the story instructed his servants to care for the wheat until it was time for the harvest, so God calls us to actively work with Jesus to make things better for people right here and right now.

Just for YOUTH

This Week...

Collect ideas to tell stories about God's Love.

The seeds and the weeds

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

Jesus knew there were good and bad things in the world. He told a story about good and bad seeds. The wheat grew from the good seeds even though weeds were growing around them.

Fill this garden with flowers from the good seeds. Mix in some weeds.

What's your story?

Turn on your imagination. Look around you. What familiar thing do you see that you could use to make a story?

Draw or write your story here.

Dear God, help me grow like good seeds.
Amen
