A Service Commemorating the National Day of Remembrance for Indian Boarding Schools, as part of the ELCA's Truth and Healing Initiative

Today we remember the innocent children who were torn from their families, taken to boarding schools, and abused by their caregivers, and who died so far away from their communities.

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:15-17

Psalm 124

Second Reading: Philippians 2:1-13

Gospel: Matthew 2:13-18

THIS SUNDAY AT BETHEL...

We celebrate the A Service Commemorating the National Day of Remembrance for Indian Boarding Schools, as part of the ELCA's Truth and Healing Initiative

Welcome and thank you to Pastor Jessica Crist, preaching and presiding for us today.

Join us in the Fellowship Hall after worship today for an Adult Forum exploring the Indian Boarding Schools, the role of the Church, and the ongoing impact on indigenous families.

With Gratitude to Dr. Kelly Sherman-Conroy, whose liturgy, "A Prayer Service for Children of Indian Boarding Schools" was adapted. The passing of the peace is based on a Navajo prayer.

INDIGENOUS MINISTRIES AND TRIBAL RELATIONS

September 30 is National Day of Remembrance for Indian Boarding Schools, and Bethel will be including remembrance in our worship and prayers on October 1. People are encouraged to wear orange, and to hang an orange banner on the Sunday nearest to September 30. We will hang the banner made by Sue Hesse in 2021, when the first group of unmarked graves was found at a former boarding school site in Canada. Since then the Orange t-shirt movement has taken hold of people's imagination. A young girl heading to a boarding school was given a brand new orange t-shirt by her grandmother. When the girl arrived at the school, the t-shirt was taken from her, as part of erasing her identity. As a way to remember the erasure of so many children's identity, the Orange t-shirt movement began. For more information and to order a t-shirt, go to www.elca.org/indigenous/boardingschools.

There are a number of opportunities to learn more about Indian Boarding Schools and other ELCA work with American Indian and Alaska Native people, all on Zoom.

Indigenous People's Day is October 9. November is Native American Awareness Month.

In the 1960's and 1970's the Lutheran Church was very involved in working with American Indian communities, seeking justice and reconciliation. Through the National Indian Lutheran Board, the Lutheran Church was a partner with many tribal communities and movements. Since 2016, the ELCA has re-engaged, first with the Repudiation of the Doctrine of Discovery in 2016, then with the Declaration to American Indians and Alaska Natives in 2021, and now with the Truth and Healing Initiative, coming out of the Office of the Presiding Bishop of the ELCA. To learn more about the history and some of the present efforts, go to www.elca.org/indigenous.

Nez Perce version of the Lord's Prayer.

*Oh Great Spirit,
You are our Shepherd Chief,
in the most high place whose home is everywhere, even beyond the stars and moon.
Whatever You want done let it be done everywhere.
Give us Your gift of bread day by day.
Forgive our wrongs as we forgive those who wrong us.
Take us away from wrong doings.
Free us from all evil, for everything belongs to You.
Let your power and glory shine forever.
Amen.*

Adult Education after Worship Beginning October 8th

First Season of The Chosen, we will be watching the episode and have discussion to follow. This series will cover 8 Sundays to complete the first season.

The Chosen is an American Christian historical drama television series. Created, directed and co-written by filmmaker Dallas Jenkins, it is the first multi-season series about the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth. Primarily set in Judaea and Galilee in the 1st century, the series centers on Jesus and the different people who met and followed or otherwise interacted with him. The series stars Jonathan Roumie as Jesus, alongside Shahar Isaac, Elizabeth Tabish, Paras Patel, Noah James, and George

The first season is set in 1st century Galilee, where Jesus starts to build a group for his ministry, inviting several people with different backgrounds. As he performs his first miracles, Jesus calls the redeemed woman Mary Magdalene; the stonemason Thaddeus; the choir member Little James; the fishermen Simon, Andrew, Big James, and John; the caterer Thomas and vintner Ramah; and the tax collector Matthew to follow him. As the group travels through Samaria, Jesus launches his public ministry after revealing himself to Photina, a Samaritan woman.

September 2023 Newsletter

It has been a busy summer here at Family Promise Great Falls, but we welcome fall and all the exciting events that are coming up! On September 7th we will be doing a kickoff with The United Way and City Motors for the City Motors Saving Families event! Greg and Tiffany will be on hand from 4-6 p.m. to talk about how United Way dollars help homeless children and their families in our community. From the 7th—15th City Motors will donate $250 from every vehicle sold to Family Promise...WOW! The generosity and kindness of this donation event is simply amazing. Then on September 11th we will be at The Mighty Mo Brew Pub for "Raise a Pint Night" benefitting Family Promise! Join us there from 5-8 p.m. for some brews and pizza, we may even have a gift basket to raffle off! Last but by no means least, on Saturday, September 30th we will be at the Schroeder farm at 87 Meridian Lane in Vaughn for Jordan's Pumpkins for a Cause. Also, Greg and Tiffany will be in training from September 18th -21st, so our office will be closed to the public.

A new beginning

This month we have welcomed a new family into Promise Place Shelter. The family of three has moved in and is getting settled. Over the next 90 days we will be collaborating closely with them to set goals and move them towards a brighter future. We are optimistic for this mom and her two children, and we wish them all the best as they embark on their new beginning!

A great evening of baseball

Thank you so much to everyone who worked to make our August 25th evening at Centene Stadium such a success! It was a wonderful night for a ball game, and even though our hometown team did not win, we still had fun cheering them on. The weather was almost perfect, and our volunteers were simply amazing! A huge shout-out to Greg's beautiful wife Tammy for coordinating the volunteer group and working so hard at the raffle table. This year's event was far more successful than last year, and we hope to grow this event in the future. A very special thank you to Candice Griffith for throwing the first pitch on behalf of Family Promise. You rock Candice!

A vertical poster for "Jordan's Pumpkins for a Cause". At the top left, it says "Like us on Facebook" and "Follow us on Instagram" in blue text, with "Pumpkins for a Cause" in black below. In the center is a cartoon illustration of a large orange pumpkin with a green stem and leaves. Below the pumpkin, the text "Jordan's" is written in a curved font above the pumpkin, and "Pumpkins for a Cause" is written in a curved font below it. The main event title "Pumpkin Picking Popcorn & Hay Rides" is written in large, bold, yellow and orange letters. Below that, the time "1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m." is listed. The date and location "Saturday, September 30th, 2023" and "87 Meridian Lane, Vaughn MT" are prominently displayed. At the bottom, it says "Free Admission & Free Parking" in bold orange letters. The very bottom of the poster features the text "All donations to benefit Family Promise" in yellow, and the Family Promise of Great Falls logo (a blue star with "FP" inside) in a white circle.

GOSPEL MESSAGE

October 1, 2023

18th Sunday after Pentecost

Change for the Better

Public officials routinely get drilled about changing their minds, especially around reelection time. One's past pledges as a political candidate are not easily left behind or forgotten. Earlier promises are often used to measure one's moral character in light of one's actual voting record. A change in opinion can be viewed with suspicion or lead to accusations of hypocrisy. We want consistency. Above all, we want to know that we can trust others to follow through on their word. This is understandable.

Unfortunately, such political norms don't often allow for the power of changing one's mind. Jesus' parable of the two sons suggests that a change in heart can in fact be a sign of deeper listening and transformation. Conversely, a refusal to change can leave us stalled on our spiritual journeys. In this way, "flip-flopping" might not always be a bad thing but rather might indicate our faithfulness to God's ongoing role in our lives.

God's promises in baptism make such change possible. Martin Luther encouraged that we daily return to our baptism. Every day God's grace frees us to admit the possibility that we have previously been or done wrong, or perhaps simply haven't been able to see the whole picture before. Grace also affords us the chance to allow that anyone can be transformed in ways previously thought impossible or unexpected. The promises that God makes in baptism open the door not only for us but for everyone else too. We can learn perhaps to trust not in consistency but in the endless possibilities for change and growth. Sometimes a change in opinion goes only as far as what we think will be most popular. But changing our mind, when done in a spirit of authentic discernment and from the heart, can be transformative. It might even open us to the kingdom of God in ways unknown before.

I believe

Matthew 21:23-32

What do you believe about God and Jesus? Christians in many places say what they believe each week in the creed. Listen for the words I believe during worship—that's the creed!

What kinds of things show what you believe about God and Jesus? Search the picture and mark any God-Jesus reminders with a cross [there are at least 11], then quietly tell someone else why you marked what you did. Look for people, places, and things.

This Week...

What does your family believe? What is important to you? Create a family creed together.

Oh God, thanks for loving me. Help me do what I believe. Amen.

Welcome to worship. In today's gospel reading people ask Jesus questions. Listen for questions today. Each time you hear a question in the reading make a ? inside this big ?.

My question for Jesus: _____

What question would Jesus ask you? _____

Following Jesus, doing God's work

We can all follow Jesus and do God's work, yet be very different people. When you finish these lists, are they the same as anyone else's? Keep doing what you love to help others! God loves you for you!

I am good at...

What are 3 ways you might do God's work? [Check the other lists for ideas!]
